Review and Accept Previous Meeting Minutes

Board voted unanimously to approve minutes from the previous meetings: 8-17-25, 9-21-25, 10-19-25, 11-16-25, and 12-21-25.

New Business

Board reviewed 2026 Farmers Market rules and application.

- The board unanimously agreed to the following regarding collecting vendor fees: $20 per market fee (non-refundable), no cash (check or money order), and fees waived after 12 markets attended with payment received.
- The board has further questions regarding collection, tracking fees, etc. and was not able to come to a consensus regarding these aspects.
 - The board unanimously agreed that a meeting with the City Council Parks and Recreation Director would be essential for coming to an agreement on these details.

Board approved sending a request to council to approve closed container alcohol sales at farmers market.

- Trott - yes, Hruby - yes, McClintock - yes, Farrell - no

Board voted unanimously to approve live music at the 2026 farmers market with the following parameters:

- Musicians are subject to the board's discretion (individual or small group with no drums)
- Equipment provided by musician(s)
- Clean language

The board:

-discussed the continued concern for the lack of year-round garbage pickup and maintenance at all city parks.
-has a NexTrex bench available for placement and is continuing to collect plastic for another bench.
-discussed possible change in board meeting time in the future to accommodate everyone.

Adjourn
